Street-Car Company's Fast Time.

Complaints that the street-railway company is furnishing transit that is so rapid that injury to its patrons is liable to result are met by a statement from John Grant. assistant general manager, who says the company intends to give Indianapolis good service, and that to do this people must not expect that cars will wait for them while they walk half a block. He claims to have investigated several cases where it was finals for the Massachusetts School of Techcharged that conductors started cars too quickly, and he found that the fault lay with the patron, rather than the conductor or motorman. Many times a day the remark is made that conductors seemed to be getting reckless, and that unless conditions are changed it is likely that someone will be severely injured.

SUES IN VIGO COUNTY.

Receiver Asked for Statehouse B. and L. Association of This City.

Judge Stimson, of the Superior Court of county, took under advisement yesterday the suit of Samuel E. Gray, deputy county auditor, who is a stockholder in the Statehouse Building Association, of this city, and seeks to have a receiver appointed for the company. He alleges misappropriation of funds, extravagance and excessive salaries. He claims to have paid in $220 and to have been offered $195 by way of settle-

Musser Case Appealed. Albert Musser, who was convicted of the murder of Louisa Stolz, of Portland, yesterday filed an appeal in the Supreme Court. Mrs. Stolz lived alone in Portland and was reputed to have a large sum of money about the house. The town marshal of Portland on Feb. 12, 1898, received a postal card, which asked him to go to her house, as she had been robbed. He failed to go, but an investigation was made by others, and it was found that she had been strangled to death. Musser and Samuel H. Marshall were indicted for the crime and Musser was convicted in Blackford county and sen-tenced to the State Prison for life. Marshall was acquitted in the Randolph county courts. Musser alleges 105 reasons why he should have the case revised and among other reasons claims he was not there when the crime was committed. It is further claimed other facts were admitted, which reflected on him by implication, although it was not proved he had anything to do with them. The postal card is cited as one in-Vandalia Pays Interest. V. T. Malott, as receiver of the Vandalia, was yesterday authorized by Judge Woods to pay to the trustees of the Rose Orphan Home, at Terre Haute, $11,621.76, due as interest on money borrowed. The home was founded by Chauncey Rose twenty-five years ago, and he endowed it with $300,000. The Vandalia borrowed $100,000 on Jan. 6, 1896, and made a payment of $20,000 on Oct.

31 following. No payment has since been made, and it was represented to the court that the institution depends on the interest from the endowment fund. The payment yesterday authorized was for the interest to date.

STREET-PAVING TRUST,

Headquarters Will Be Located in This City-The Details.

A dispatch to the Journal from Lafayette

"The consummation of an extensive deal affecting the asphalt business was announced here to-day by Henry W. Marshall, who represented this and Warren counties in the last Legislature. For some months Marshall has been working in the direction of a combination of the Western Paving and Supply Company and the Elkins as-phait syndicate, but recently the scheme was almost abandoned. Last week, however, it was revived, and it is now said that formal transfer will be made next week. The Western company, which is one of the largest in this country, will pool issues with the Elkins people, and the head-quarters of the former will be moved from Chicago to Indianapolis, where Mr. Marshall will be installed as general manager. "He has taken considerable stock in the companies, and may come to the presidency of the new company. The plan under which the combination will operate, as Mr. Mar-shall explains, will be to divide territory and make contracts all over the country, the proceeds to be turned into a common treasury. It is expected that the Eastern money coming into the venture will result in a material enlargement of the business in the West, where the Western company has already plants in Chicago, Detroit, In-dianapolis, Evanston, Ill., Evansville, Ind., Milwaukee and a number of portable plants. The deal involves something like a half million dollars."

DRUGGED A FORT WAYNE GIRL AND THEN NEARLY KILLED HER.

Letter from Senator Beveridge, Written July 4, While Still in Quarantine at Nagasaki.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. FORT WAYNE, Ind., Aug. 4 .- There is onsiderable excitement here because of an assault by "Big Bill" Hilker on Minnie Reamer, aged sixteen. The girl is in a critical condition, and, should she die, there may be trouble. Hilker owns a grocery, and on Thursday he delivered goods at the Reamer home. He invited Minnie to get in the wagon and ride to the store, promising her a bottle of beer to take home. Instead of going to the store he started to New Haven, east of here, and stopped at a roadhouse, where the girl was drugged. He then proceeded to New Haven. Farmers testify that he threw her out of the buggy and let her drag along the ground, and would then pull her back by her hair. Many attempts were made to capture him, but farmers seemed afraid. Finally enough of them organized and overtook him just as Hilker threw the girl between the buggy bed and the wheel, where she was being tortured when a sudden twist of her body locked the wheel. This stopped the buggy and he was caught. It was necessary to take the wheel off to extricate the girl. She was carried to a hotel, where physicians were called. Her body is literally covered with cuts and bruises, and she is hurt internally. Hilker has been remanded without bail to await the result of his work.

CENTRAL NORMAL COLLEGE. Commencement Exercises Have Continued Through the Week.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. DANVILLE, Ind., Aug. 4 .- Commencement exercises of Central Normal College, which began on Sunday night with the baccalaureate sermon by the Rev. Burris K. Jenkins, president of the University of Indianapolis, have been attended with unusual interest all through the week. One hundred and fifty students have been graduated from the various departments. On Monday night came exercises of the school of music. the large college chapel being crowded to hear the recital by the three graduates-Effie Adams, Emma Tharpe and Geraldine

Tuesday evening the law class, composed of ten members, was graduated. Senator Hogate making the class address, after which the members were admitted to the Supreme Court of Indiana, the oath being given by Supreme Judge Hadley. Wednesday night was devoted to the meeting of the Society of the Alumni, the address being given by the Hon. D. V. Miller, of Terre Haute. In point of attendance the past year has been the most successful in the history of the college: During the spring term twelve hundred students were nrolled in the various departments. The coming year will witness some changes in the faculty. Prof. A. J. Kinnaman goes to Indiana University on a leave of absence, Prof. Williamson resigns to enter the medical school of the University of Cincinnati. These vacancies have been only partially filled. Mrs. E. E. Olcott has been elected to the primary and model school department and Prof. Norman advanced to the position occupied by Prof. Kinnaman.

MISS DOGOOD MISSING. Music Teacher and Vocalist Who Was

Forced to "Work Out" at Rushville. Special to the Indianapolis Journal. RUSHVILLE, Ind., Aug. 4.-Lena Chris tine Dogood, aged eighteen, of Harrison, O. has been mysteriously missing from Rushville since last Monday evening. Miss Dogood came here from Harrison five months ago. She is an accomplished musician and a good singer. She tried to secure employ ment as a teacher of music, but failing this she went to work as a domestic. She worked last at the home of Esau Adams, on First street. Her term of service at the Adams home having ended. Miss Dogood instructed Mr. Adams to deliver her trunk at the Brown House, a private hotel. He did so, but was informed that the girl had not put in an appearance there. That was 6 o'clock Monday evening and since then Miss Dogood has been missing. Her disappearance was reported to City Marsha Jones to-day by Esau Adams, who holds Miss Dogood's trunk. Miss Clara Wagner young woman with whom the Dogood girl chummed, says she has not seen her since last Saturday night. She says Miss Dogood frequently talked of suicide and said that it she did not get a better position soon she would do away with herself. She seemed melancholy at times and cried a great deal. Miss Dogood is an orphan. She is five feet six inches tall and weighs 150 pounds. She has brown hair, dark eyes and walks erect City Marshal Jones to-day investigated every clew that might lead to the discovery of the missing girl, but no definite information of her whereabouts has been received. WESTERN OIL STOCKS. Reserve Supply Being Drawn On and Prices Advancing. Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

MONTPELIER, Ind., Aug. 4.-Great activity is being displayed in the Indiana oil field and as soon as the product advances to the dollar mark the drill will be pushed with a vengeance. The pipe line companies will certainly be compelled to advance the price of the crude oil, as the stocks are being drawn on very heavily. The following figures show the conditions for the month of July in the Indiana and Ohio fields, being the entire Trenton rock field:

Daily average Shipments over runs As the price is based on the production of all the fields, the conditions of the Eastern fields are also given:

 Daily average
 83,587

 Shipments, all fields
 4,172,229

 Runs from all fields
 4,054,905

 Shipments over runs...... 117,324 The above figures show a very healthy condition for an advance in the price, as the fields combined show that 117,324 barrels were drawn from the stocks to supply the trade. In the Indiana and Ohio fields 475,252 barrels were drawn from the stocks, while in

by 357,928 barrels. "HEY RUBE" AT MUNCIE. Street-Car Manager Tried to Spoil

Buffalo Bill's Parade.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. MUNCIE, Ind., Aug. 4.-Buffalo Bill' Wild West show and the street-car company collided at the corner of Main and Walnut streets on the public square during the parade to-day and a riot almost resulted by excited men interfering in behalf of the show company. Manager Baldwin, of the street railway, desired to dictate the route of the parade and when turned down ordered his several motormen to run right through the parade. At the above corner the dense crowd blockaded the car, and one of the show wagons took a part by stopping across the track with the manager, a driver and an Indian in it. Baldwin relieved the motorman and attempted to bump the wagon from the track. A policeman was called and pulled his big revolver to force the show wagon to move on, but the crowd would not permit it and threatened to derail the car and pounce upon Baldwin, when Superintendent Cashmere, of the police force, interfered and checked Baldwin. LETTER FROM BEVERIDGE. The Senator Missed His Boat by Reason of Quarantine.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

WABASH, Ind., Aug. 4.-Representative C. S. King to-day received the following letter from Senator Albert J. Beveridge, who was quarantined off Nagasaki, Japan, on a vessel infected with the bubonic plague, when the letter was written, on July 4. Senator Beveridge says:

"Here I am on a ship in quarantine with the deadly Asiatic plague on board. It is a quick disease that kills in a day. It is not very pleasant to be confined in a pest-infected ship in midsummer, in a land-locked port of south Japan, but far worse than this is the fact that it has made me miss my ship to America, on which my passage was engaged, so my return is delayed by a cirous. The plague is unknown in the Philipoines. Its home is in south China. I have been all over the archipelago, at the front and away from it, in sun and rain, and have been pretty well over China, which, by the way, is the big question of our near future. My open air life in the tropics has made me stronger than ever."

GEORGE PALMER'S GHOST. Spirit of Murdered Rushville Man Appears to His Daughter Twice. Special to the Indianapolis Journal. RUSHVILLE, Ind., Aug. 4.-Mrs. Rachel Phillips, who asserts that she saw the ghost of her father, George Palmer, who was shot and killed June 10 last by Abner Leonard, has left the Palmer home and is living with her sister, Mrs. Elsberry Pea. Mrs. Phillips says she saw her father's ghost twice and expects to see him again. She says he befriended her in trouble that arose a short time before the murder. She thinks her father came back either to see her young son, now ten days old, or else to confide to her some matter that troubled his mind. Mrs. Phillips says the vision so frightened her that she was unable to speak and by the time she recovered sufficient courage to address the ghost it had vanished. She left the house in which she saw the specter in order to escape further visitations. No amount of argument will convince Mrs. Phillips that she has not seen her father's

THE PREACHER LOCKED OUT. ev. Widger and Part of His Church

Met on the Steps. Special to the Indianapolis Journal. COLUMBUS, Ind., Aug. 4. - Since the resignation of Rev. E. B. Widger, of the Tabernacle Christian Church, of this city. last week, considerable ill feeling has divided the members into two factions, those opposing the action of the board of elders and those supporting it. Rev. Widger, with his followers, held that the board of elders had taken no action on his resignation, and concluded yesterday to hold a public meeting at the church to-night. A card signed by the pastor was published in all the local papers to-day announcing the meeting and inviting the board of elders, board of deacons and all members to be present. The board of elders, claiming to have accepted his resignation at a former meeting, ordered the janitor to lock the doors of the church at noon to-day and refused to let them have the use of the church. At 8 o'clock to-night Rev. Widger and followers stood in a drenching rain at the barred doors of his church and discussed their troubles for about an hour and then adjourned. What further action will be taken is not known.

Alleged Hydrophobia Cases.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. WARSAW, Ind., Aug. 4 .- The three children of Andrew Perkey, a farmer residing near this city, have bad cases of hydrophobia without having been bitten by a mad dog. Several days ago a dog belonging to the family became suddenly mad and it was shut up in the summer kitchen, where it bit and scratched the walls and floor until was killed. Several days later one of Perkey's little daughters was attacked with toothache and, puiling a splinter from the wall of the kitchen, which was made of split logs, used it as a toothpick. She soon showed symptoms of hydrophobia. She scratched her little sister and a brother and all three are now very ill.

Girl Dragged to Death by a Cow. pecial to the Indianapolis Journal DARLINGTON, Ind., Aug. 4.-Miss Ethel Burnham, the sixteen-year-old stepdaughter of Jerome Ward, near Kirkpatrick, in the northern part of this county, went to a field to milk this morning and was dragged to death by a cow. She had fastened the halter strap around her wrist and the cow became frightened and ran around the field until Miss Burnham was dead. Miss Burnham was assaulted and nearly beaten to death by a tramp two years ago one evening near the same place while returning from school. Locomotive Blew Up at Winamac.

WINAMAC, Ind., Aug. 4.-A Panhandle freight engine exploded at the water tank this morning at 3:20 o'clock and demolished the engine. Frank Sewell, of Richmond fireman, was fatally injured. Special to the Indianapolis Journal. RICHMOND, Ind., Aug. 4.-State Fish Commissioner Sweeney, who spent last night in this city, met informally a large number of the local fishermen. In the conference that took place Mr. Sweeney made a spirited defense of the new fish law. He believes seining under the new law is a good thing for the fishermen in general, and not for the seiners alone.

Mr. G. H. Snyder, a well known citizen of Lawrence, Kan, said:

"I am now seventy years of age. About three years ago I experienced a coldness or numbness in the feet, then creeping up my legs, until it reached my body. I grew very thin in flesh, appetite poor and I did not relish my food." At last I became unable to move about. I consulted several distinguished physicians, one telling me I had locomotor ataxia, another that I had creeping paralysis. I took their medicines but continued to grow worse. Almost a year ago a friend advised me to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. Before I had finished my first box I found they were benefiting me. I used twelve boxes in all, and was perfectly cured. Although it is six months since I used my last pill there has been no recurrence of the disease." From Lawrence Journal.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People contain, in a condensed form, all the elements necessary to give new life and rich-ness to the blood and restore shattered nerves. They are an unfailing specific for such diseases as locomotor ataxia, partial paralysis, St. Vitus' dance, sciatica, neuralgia, rheumatism, nervous headache, the after-effects of the grip, palpitation of the heart, pale and sallow complexions, and all forms of weakness either in male or female.

WONDERFUL COUNTING MACHINE. How the Returns of the Twelfth Census Will Be Tabulated.

Washington Letter in St. Louis Globe-Dem-It has been practically decided to make the count of the twelfth census by the Holerith tabulating machines, according to the report of the commission of experts apwork done by various systems of tabulation offered by inventors. Some 600 or more of these wonderful machines will be operated night and day in tabulating the returns from the 60,000 enumerators. The system is hire alone, and much greater accuracy was at once simple and yet complex. It is com-plex in the great results and simple in the operation. A card is punched full of holes, in one machine, and then run through another. In the two movements everything relating to an individual which has been gleaned by the enumerator has been trans-ferred to dials which are capable of record-ing the characteristics of similar individuals up to the number of 10,000. Thin manifa cards 6%x3% inches are placed in the punching machine, which has a keyboard similar n appearance to that of an enlarged typewriter. This keyboard has twelve banks of yesterday morning, to save the life of a keys, with twenty keys in each bank. The characters are grouped so that the operator can easily find the single character which will denote, for instance, the single or married state of an individual. All the characters relating to the marital relations are grouped together, representing single, margroups are arranged in a similar manner. In marking the keys the best possible abbreviations have been made, such as Dv. for divorced, Mr. for married and Sg. for single. In some cases, however, abbrevia-tions could not be arranged for long classifi-cations, and letters or symbols are used. As the operator becomes acquainted with these signs by constant use it is not long before he or she becomes so familiar with the 240 characters that almost an incredible number of cards can be correctly punched in a very short time. One of the expert clerks in the last census read 1,907 cards in one day, and maintained an average of 13,356 cards for a week. This was done in a day of six an done-half hours and included nine different readings. Some of the women tabulators counted over 50,000 people per day, and the average was 47,950. From 500 to 700 cards were punched daily by each clerk and some averaged over 1,000. The slip furnished by the enumerator is placed before the op-erator of the punching machine. Behind the keyboard lies the card and above it swings an instrument resembling an awl. When this is placed over the proper character and pressed down the punch at the back makes a hole in the proper place. So expert do the operatives become that a card which, to the ordinary observer, is merely a card with a number of holes scattered about it, is to them the brief biography of an individual, giving his nationality, age, sex, etc.

From the punching machines the cards go to the gang punch, which is used to stamp on the card a combination of holes indicating the enumeration district in which the person to whom the card belongs re-sides. From three to six cards can be punched at a time in this punch, from which fact it derives its name. Should there be any doubt as to the correctness with which a card is punched, it can be placed over a "reading board," which is a card of the size of the perforated card with characters similar to those on the keyboard, so the perforations in the card show exactly what characters were employed in punch-ing it. Should a card be punched wrong, in that the sex was omitted, or the age, etc., the counting machine would discover the error, because all the proper holes not being punched the electric circuits would not be complete and the machine would refuse to count the card.

The tabulation machine consists of three main parts-the press, or circuit closing device; the dials, or counters, and the sorting boxes. The first consists of a hard rubber plate, containing 516 holes, or pockets, the relative positions of which correspond to those of the holes in the keyboard Wabash freight train at the Ninth-street and gang-punches. Each of these pockets s partially filled with mercury and when the circuit is complete they are in connec-tion with the switchboard in the rear. Above the card swings a reciprocating pin box with pins arranged so as to fit in the center of the cups, partially filled with mer-cury. When this pin box is pressed down upon a punched card, fitted over with the rubber plate, those pins which find holes pass through the card and complete the circuit, while those which are not fortunate nough to find a hole are pressed backward and their circuits not being completed they fall to register a count. The dials consist of cardboard, covered with celluloid, and each dial has two hands, the one counting up to 100 and the other counting the hundreds up to 1,000. By arranging the circuits the dials can be prepared so that only certain ones will register. This method is employed when, for example, it is desired to know how many white males there are in a certain district over twenty-one years of open, into which the operator slips the card, replacing the lid with a touch of the finger. The cards remaining are passed through the machine for other groupings until all are arranged as desired By this ingenious device it is possible to count all the white males of foreign birth. or of native birth, those born of German or other foreign-born parents, the unmar-ried women and married men, and so on. The synthetical work is conducted by the tabulating machine and the analytical work by the sorting boxes. As the machine can be fixed so as to respond to several combinations at once, according to the ar-rangement of the circuit, the division of cards into groups when sent through the machine but one time is limited only by can be grouped and counted as white, male, single and American, or colored, female, married and foreign, and so on, in various combinations. It is estimated that durin the last census these machines saved the government from $600,000 to $1,000,000 in clerk secured than would have been possible by employing clerks alone.

SAVES A NEGRO.

Governor Candler Takes Command of Militia and Thwarts a Mob. Islington. The Salvation Army of the entire world is encamped at the Royal Agricultural Hall, Islington, where it will remain during the ensuing fortnight, attracting the many thou-sands to its second great exhibition, which is being held in the vast building.
The army had an exhibition three years ago, but it was not on such a comprehensive scale as the present one. Here are gathered together representatives of the army from all parts of the inhabitable globe, and they have brought with them many native converts and samples of native industries, and they have also reproduced in a most faithful manner scenes from far-away mission houses. Japan rubs shoulders with the West Indies, Australia with Holland, Scandinavia with India. Canada with Denmark, Rhodesia with America, Finland with Germany, that no other religious body has penetrated into so many distant lands as have the Salvationists. As is officially pointed out, the exhibition affords a "birdseye view of the army's work from Whitechapel to Fiji," and a most strikingly picturesque view it is. The African kraals, the Indian mud-huts, the prayer houses, the barracks, the tea gardens, the farm colony, the naval and military display, the training homes, the slums, the shelters—these are but a few of the quaint attractions of the exhibition, and as they are all faithfully represented, the view of the whole place from one of the galleries, with the myriads of flags and banners stretched from every part of the roof and walls, is intensely diversifying and impos-
